Dear Friends of the Wheels of Dreams Youth Foundation:

This fall, the Atlanta Black McDonald's Operators Association (BMOA) is hosting it's 11th Annual Wheels of Dreams Celebrity Golf Classic in support of its mission to "create future business leaders."

The Wheels of Dreams Youth Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational program that helps inner-city, and underserved teens with mentoring, teen entrepreneurial ideas, basic and advanced computer skills, job, career, college planning, money management tips, college scholarship opportunities and encourages healthy lifestyle choices. The Wheels of Dreams program consists of a mobile "classroom on wheels" which offers interactive computer educational lessons in English and Spanish free to the public.

Since its inception in 2003, more than 8,000 students have visited the Wheels of Dreams bus. We'd like to invite you to join us as a sponsor of the 11th Annual Wheels of Dreams Celebrity Golf Classic which will take place on Monday, October 25, 2010 at Crystal Lake Golf & Country Club. This year's package includes the ACE sponsorship level which will include entry into the Saturday Skins Game, and much more. Sponsor fees are $10,000, $7,500, $5,000, $1,600, and $400 respectively. We also have individual participant entries for a fee of $400.

Please consider spending a day on the links to help our youth achieve success and fulfill their dreams. The deadline for registration is October 15, 2010. Space is limited, so please send your registration in right away. You will be contacted soon to determine your willingness to participate in this worthy event. We look forward to your continued support and if you have any questions, please contact Tia Jakes at 678-526-7974.

Sincerely,
Van K. Jakes
Tournament Director, BMOA Member

Leon Goodrum

Mission of the Wheels of Dreams Youth Foundation

Our mission is to provide positive role models, entrepreneur lessons, mentors and employment opportunities to inner city, underserved and at-risk youth. The program provides supplemental educational curriculum designed to take back the community from the negative influences of drugs, gangs and violence. The Wheels of Dreams Youth Foundation hopes to prepare students for the world of work, provide the message of hard work and discipline to achieve positive dreams, improve communities and the lives of youth. The Wheels of Dreams program consists of a mobile "classroom on wheels" which offers interactive computer educational lessons in English and Spanish free to the public. The Wheels of Dreams Youth Foundation is a non-profit 501(c)(3) educational program that also helps inner-city, and underserved students with mentoring, teen entrepreneurial ideas, basic and advanced computer skills, job, career, college planning, money management tips, college scholarship opportunities and encourages healthy lifestyle choices. In 2005 1,200 students participated in the program through the following events. Since its inception in 2003, more than 8,000 students have taken part in the Wheels of Dreams bus program. "Since we began our strategic alliances eight years ago with the Greater Atlanta McDonald's Operator Association, The Atlanta Ronald McDonald House Charities, The Coca-Cola Company, Gateway, WWSB-TV, V-103, Equifax, 100 Black Men of Atlanta, Atlanta Public Schools, After-School All-Stars, Georgia State University, Mayor Shirley Franklin and those who have participated in our Celebrity Golf Classic we all have continued to make dreams come true for youth who really need our help", said BMOA President Vicki Phelps-Chancellor.
